THE TIMOROUS KUBUS.

They Live in Sumatra and Are the Shiest of People.

There is a very singular race of people in Sumatra, the Kubus, who are too timorous and shy to mix with the other races of the island and dwell in the recesses of the forests. They are looked on as inferiors by the Malays and thought to be little better than beasts. Such is their shyness that they will never willingly face a stranger.

Their trade with the Malaysians is consequently carried on in a strange manner. The trader announces his arrival by beating a gong, and he then retires. The Kubus approach, put their forest treasures on the ground, beat a gong and retreat. The trader returns and lays his commodities down in quantities sufficient, as he thinks, for the purchase of the goods on sale. Then he retires, and the Kubus reappear and consider the bargain.

And so, after more withdrawals and approach parties come to an understanding and carry off independently their bargains. The Kubus in their wild state no doubt bury their dead. They live on snakes, grubs, fruits and the flesh of any deer or pigs they can kill. They are skillful spearmen and throw stones with marvelous accuracy.—Pall Mall Gazette.

Deadly Serpent Bites.

Are as common in India as are stomach and liver disorders with us. For the latter, however, there is a sure remedy. Electric Bitters, the great restorative medicine, of which S. A. Brown, of Bennettville, S. C., says: "They restored my wife to perfect health after years of suffering with dyspepsia and a chronically torpid liver." Electric Bitters cure chills and fever, malaria, biliousness, lame back, kidney troubles and bladder disorders. Sold only on guaranteed by J. C. Perry, druggist, Salem, Or. Price, 50c.

The Destruction of San Francisco

BY EARTHQUAKE AND FIRE

By Charles Eugene Banks and Opie Read

Special :-: Memorial :-: Volume

This edition will be eagerly sought after by millions of Americans who have demonstrated their sympathy in a substantial manner by cheerfully answering the call of the stricken, and giving money, food and clothing with a generosity truly American. Every city, town and village throughout the land is stretching forth its hands to help those in distress. Human hearts are beating today in every hamlet in the world for friends or relatives dead or dying in the ruins.

There never was a time in the history of the world when all eyes were turned to one city, as now they are toward the once great city of San Francisco.

Interest is at fever heat and there is a demand for this book, by all people, that makes it a duty and an honor to be the means of bringing it to them.

This book tells, by pen and picture, the detailed story as gathered by writers on the grounds, of the awful calamity that befell San Francisco and the smaller cities of the Pacific coast, leaving hundreds of thousands homeless and at the mercy of their fellow men; of the loss of life and the destruction of property; the story of the disaster as told by the survivors; fighting fire with dynamite; murder and pillage by ghouls; food and water famine; army guarding survivors under martial law; the rifle and noose the fate of ghouls; burial alive in tombs of fire; a city turned into an inferno of furnaces; hundreds insane; sympathy of nations; relief work of our people; contributions for the suffering from individuals, cities and congress; a nation's sympathy aroused.
